

Jeff Wolfsberg, “the drug guy,” returns to Upper School
March 8th through March 12th

For those of you unfamiliar with Jeff’s work, he is a renowned drug and alcohol prevention specialist, he has worked with our students and families for many years, and his work has been appreciated by all. If you would like to learn more about Jeff and his work, you can visit his website: www.jeffwolfsberg.com

Please mark your calendars and attend the following events available to all upper-school parents:

- Tuesday, March 9 at 6 p.m., in the Theatre: presentation followed by Q and A
- Friday, March 12 at 8:15 a.m., in the PA room: Coffee with upper-school parents

In the coming weeks, I will convey more details about Jeff’s week with us including how to RSVP for the parent events noted above and how to access the extensive resources Jeff makes available to parents.

Currently there are a number of students in touch with Jeff; they are discussing what issues the students feel are important to cover during Jeff’s visit. And Jeff becomes a confidential resource to all of our students and parents for a calendar year beyond his visit which members of our community have found invaluable.

We greatly value our ongoing partnership with you, working together on the critical issue of drug and alcohol prevention and the general health and well being of your children, so we hope you will find the time to attend these important parent events.

Watch your inbox for more information to follow.

All the best,

Kendall Cameron
Assistant Director of Upper School
